

1964 Senior Edition TIGER'S ROAR

BANQUET BRIEFS . . .

PRESENTING . . . a flagless flag salute
. . . I'll keep your hand as a souvenir . . .
singing with wild arms and legs . . . pink and red . . . restaurant price, cafeteria food . . . sit and sit at baccalaureate . . .
"He does everything; now the trumpet!"
. . . birthday boy Bob Musgrave . . . folkmania to Beatlemania . . . strawberries on a dab of whipped cream . . . Paivine—
"Roll them the other way and they'll be flat." . . . face powder—a cure for embarrassment . . . disappearing punchbowls
. . . bright sun and rain clouds . . . "we laugh, we sing, we know how to have fun" . . . neckties and white socks . . .
cherries for the nine boys . . . "Maria" never had it so good . . . fragrant roses and lacy doilies . . . "let's have a party"
. . . musical background for prophecies
. . . letters, certificates, and trophies . . .
Make way for the CLASS of '64!

Scholarship Letter Winners

Earning a B-plus average or better in all subjects including PE for five consecutive semesters in senior high are fifteen seniors who received scholarship letters presented by the Black-Gold Booster Club.

Dick Anderson	Kathy Murray
Diana Blake	Marina O'Donnell
Barrie Bloom	Mary Paivine
Ruth Boydston	Paul Pedroni
Sue Bringle	Susan Rich
Dan Chase	Francis Robertson
Bill Hinote	Robert Silva
Elaine Watson

A LITTLE RED WAGON Pulled by Rick Ramey, Mrs. Botley enjoys the last days of her teaching career.

SENIORS SUPREME Prophecy people Jeanne Parsons, Elaine Watson, Susan Rich, Bill Hart, and Cheri Cranford try on Senior sweatshirts.

Senior Edition—TIGER'S ROAR

The Senior Edition of the Tiger's Roar is published annually by the Senior Class of San Luis Obispo Senior High School and printed by Blake Printery. Staff members are: Jeanne Parsons, editor; Robert Bellin, Cheri Cranford, Bill Hart, Susan Rich, Elaine Watson, Bonita Bowlus and members of the senior class. Advisers are: Mr. Agnew, Mr. Dollahon, Miss Mace. Dennis Burkhart, photographer. Francie Robertson and Lekan Welch, typists.

"OH, MY CONTACT" Tiger fans cheer the mimicking of the basketball team by the "powder puff" senior girls.

Last Will and Testaments

I, JANIE ADAMS, being of sound mind and body, hereby will and bequeath two pairs of walking shoes to Pam Gillen and Gail Willing.

I, KATRINCA E. AKERS, being of sane mind and sound body, do hereby bequeath to Linden Martz my attendance record.

I, NORMAN ALBERTI, being of sound mind, will and bequeath all my old school papers and books to my parents in remembrance of me in school.

I, JANE ALDERMAN, being of sound body and flabby mind, do hereby will and bequeath Miss Botley's MACBETH to all up-coming seniors.

I, ELAINE ANDERSON, being of sound mind and body do will and bequeath my foods book to KATHY GAUTHIER in hopes she will need it for the future.

I, DAVE ANDERSON, do will all my books, looks, and all that kind of good stuff to my girl, B. C.

I, RICHARD G. ANDERSON, being of broad mind and narrow body, do hereby will and bequeath to BOB MAZZA and GORDON PHARES one King-size crying towel, to be used jointly after Ken Heitz scores 40 points against them in next year's Righetti basketball game.

I, PARI ANVAR, do hereby will and bequeath my headaches from Civics and U.S. History in the same year to returning LARRY FALK.

I, RAY ASHLEY, being of sound mind, do will and bequeath to MAUREEN SILVIERA all my empty gum wrappers in hopes she will refill them and pass them back to me.

I, FRANNIE AZEVEDO, being of sound mind and frail body do hereby will and bequeath my ability to argue with Mrs. Lee to MARCEL PABLOFF.

I, GARY BABCOCK, being of unsound mind and sound body do hereby will and bequeath to my little brother the power of blowing up my car every Saturday night.

I, BILL BALDRIDGE, being of sound mind and Beatles body hereby will and bequeath my Beatle wig to PAM GILLEN and GAIL WILLING.

I, REX BALDWIN, being of Herculean form do will and bequeath to ED OLIVERA all of the sheep in San Luis County.

I, LINDA BARRY, being of sound mind and body do will and bequeath to FRANCIS PARKER, who will be a senior again next year, the ability to pass Mrs. Meacham's civics class.

I, NORBERT BAUKUS, being of athletic body and sound mind, want to bequeath all the fun I had in SLO in several respects, to my follower, hoping that he will enjoy his stay here as much as I did.

I, ALVIN BELL, being of sound mind and body hereby will and bequeath my ability to crack a baton in half to next year's head majorette, JAN-NELLE RISLEY.

I, BOB BELLIN, being of sound mind, will and bequeath to anyone my ability to get to my locker during the between class rush.

I, HENRY BIDDLES, being of soggy mind and saturated skin, do hereby will and bequeath to all the tadpoles down at the pool one fine pair of my frog legs.

I, DIANA BLAKE, being of sound mind and withering body, do hereby will and bequeath to Mrs. Lee the name "Diane" with the hope that she may use it on someone who is actually named that as often as she used it on me.

I, JED BLAKE, being of poor health and unsound mind, do hereby will and bequeath 8, or is it 6, of my Autolite Sparkplugs to CHRIS LUNN to be installed in his Studebaker no later than August 34, so that his car will sound like a Ford, if not go like one.

I, BARRIE BETH BLOOM, do hereby will and bequeath one slightly used wagon to Mrs. Botley for the assurance of dependable transportation throughout the years of her retirement. Nostalgic, Mrs. Botley?

I, SHARON BOLES, being of exhausted mind and body, will and bequeath my own case of senioritis to any junior girl unlucky enough to catch it.

I, HARRY BOLLER, being of sound mind and body, do will and bequeath to MARTHA GROVES a saw to take down her own sigh.

I, BEVERLY BONIFAS, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my aquiline nose to SHIRLEY MILLER.

I, PATTY BONINI, being of sound mind and body, bequeath to an unsuspecting teacher MARLENE JOHNSON, and to Miss Toalson, all the paper that is used on one side.

I, JERRY BOURNE, being of sound mind and my positive thinking on Fords so they don't make body, do hereby will all sophomores and juniors the same mistake I did of buying a Chevrolet engine.

I, BONITA BOWLUS, being of limited mind, do hereby bequeath my ability to goof up a perfectly good broadcast to Bob Swanson, and my highly inquisitive mind to Mona Enos.

I, DAVID BOWMAN, being of warped mind and stunted body will to STEVE GRAN some of my height; to HARRY BOLLER I will my little sister; and to NORINE MUGLER, JOANNE DODGE, and LESLIE ENOS I will my English Leather—most of all, to all of this year's Cheerleaders and Song-leaders I will the memory of my somewhat under-developed legs.

I, RUTH BOYDSTON, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my 20,000 Words and a new set of grammar sheets to Mrs. Meacham.

I, SUE BRINGLE, being of relatively sound mind and body, do bequeath to ROBERT B a new car; to BOBBY WELLS, a new set of tires for his car; to LARRY H. a muzzle; and to ROGER H. the very best of everything always to him and M.B.H.S.

I, ELEANOR J. BRODIE, being of sound mind or otherwise, will my $1.04 ring to my husband, BOB SWANSON; all my clothes to the junior and sophomore members of Leonore's Fashion Board; my cough and cold to LORI MARTIN; my morning "hi's" to that guy at the entrance of the English wing; and all my cuts and bruises to my brother, GILBERT HOFFMAN.

I, MARGARET BUCK (B.I.D.), being of retarded mind and body do hereby will and bequeath my Beatlemanie to LIZ GONZALES.

I, JIM BUFFETT, being of sound mind and body have not much to leave behind, but whatever you junior's and sophomore's do—don't take JERRY BOURNE'S advice, take mine and buy a Chev.

I, GERALD BURGESS, being absent-minded, will my you know what to you know who. P.S. I hope you know who knows where it is.

I, SHIRLEY BUSS, being of unsound mind and body, do will and bequeath to LINDA FERRARO my ability to grow fingernails so successfully.

I, JOHN WILLIAM BUTLER, being in the condition high school put me in, hereby will and bequeath all my senior privileges to LORI DELMARTINI, who I am sure, like myself, won't be able to find them.

I, RICHARD BUTZKE, being of sound mind and body, will and bequeath three tons of ground gravy train to the class of '65—you dogs.

I, SHEILA CAGLE, being of sound mind (?) and body, do will and bequeath to the junior students—what they need to be seniors—the knack for getting money; to the sophomores—what they need to be juniors—a place for all the things the seniors will to them (also, good luck).

I, WARREN CAMBIER, being of feeble mind and more feeble body, do hereby will and bequeath my uncanny ability to obtain above average grades in French to two lovely young sophomore girls from Mr. Bridewell's fifth period class.

I, GENELLE CAMPBELL, being of sound body and lovesick mind, do hereby will and bequeath to PEGGY HAYES the ability to flirt with "older guys."

LAST WILLS . . .

I, JUDY CAMPFIELD, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to LINDEN MARTZ all the good jokes, not the bad ones, she tells in Mr. Avila's second period class.

I, DALE CAREY being of insane mind and unsound body do hereby publicly will my unestimatable tennis to Mr. MICHAEL R. F. WOLTERS, so that he may be able to challenge, and beat, PARKER HALL.

I, PHIL CARROLL, on this twentieth day of February, 1964, anno domini, being of sound mind and Beagle haircut, do hereby bequeath to one, CONNIE HEINZ, the best Scuzz & Know, Teddy Roosevelt's "Big Stick" knowing she will swing it widely.

I, SUSAN CAUGHLAN, being of headaching mind and queezy stomach, do hereby will and bequeath my party spirit to MONA ENOS so she can hold on to that special guy.

I, WILLIAM W. CHAIDES, being of sound mind and sound body, do hereby bequeath the acknowledgements of all my prior activities while attending the Senior High School of San Luis Obispo, to the head coach.

I, DAN CHASE, being of sound mind and young heart, do hereby will and bequeath my cap gun, teddy bear, and bubble bath to ROD SMITH.

I, CLARK CHEFF, being of sane mind and sound body, do hereby will and bequeath my physical coordination to Steve Cook.

I, BARRY CHRISTENSEN, being of unsound mind, and feeble body, bequeath to any poor soul a book locker on the bottom row and a stack of nine slightly used text books which I guarantee won't fit into it.

We, BARRY CHRISTIANSEN, SANDY VAUGHN, MARK DeWITT, ELEANOR BRODIE, BILL HART, and NANCY LEWIS, DO WILL and bequeath our painting ability to Arroyo Grande High School!!!!

I, CATHERINE COATES, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath to the sophomores the ability I have to get A's in Civics. (ha! ha!)

I, MARY COLLINS, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to all future students of Mrs. Wilson's class all the exercises that will help their physical condition and figures for a useful future life.

I, SYLVIA COLWELL, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to DEAN FAGLEY, the "undernourished" boy with the darling smile, one well-used dollar in hopes that he will invest it and eat better next year.

I, JOE CONDRA, being of sound body and sane mind do hereby will and bequeath to LINDA LOGELAND, my wonderfully superior grades; and to Terry Connors, my superior driving ability; to LYNN DUVALL, all my love; and to anyone who wants it, my wonderful musical ability.

I, ANNE COOPER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my athletic ability in hockey to SHIRLEY MILLER.

I, MIKE COTTA, being of sound mind and body, will and bequeath to my brother, John, my old binder, and my P.E. teachers.

I, JIM COX, being of sound mind and body, will my brains and intelligence to my twin brother JACK, and TOM ONTIVARES, who needs them more.

I, CHERI CRANFORD, being of sound mind and bad back, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to return library books on time and to stay out of trouble to CAROL KING, in hopes she will use it.

I, JERRY CURLEY, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my "Trusty Rusty" surf wagon, complete with my "Oldie Moldie" baggies, assorted decals, and my unique habit of getting sick whenever a swell is running, to no young surfers—for they have these abilities already.

I, DONNA DAOUST, being of insane mind and feeble body, do hereby bequeath to DONALD SAWYERS my ability to fail Civics tests.

I, DANNY DAVIS, being of sound mind do will and bequeath my beautiful blue, 4-door custom, to DALE DUNFORD to cherish with good intention.

I, JERI DAVIS, being of sound mind and body, will to FRANKIE JO WILSON, my ability to have fun at class parties; also, all my homework, notebooks, etc., so that she will be able to graduate with her class at the age of 16.

I, SANDY DAVIS, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath all my Civics notebooks to DEE WESTLAKE; and now she can hope they won't change the books.

I, DONNA DeVAUL, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to FRAN IAFRATI, the cafeteria's soggy grilled cheese sandwiches that I always put in the garbage cans.

I, MARK DeWITT, being of sleepy mind and tired body, do hereby will and bequeath my alarm clock to any future astronomers who want to come to school at 7:25 A.M.

I, JIM DECKER, being of distorted mind and body, leave "If Man Could Understand Women, He Still Wouldn't Believe It," to all underclassmen.

I, DOUG DIEFENDERFER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the by-laws of the Lettermen Club to HOWIE CARROLL.

I, JANE DIEL, being of sound mind and broken body, do will and bequeath all of the hockey sticks and hockey games to the sophomore, junior and senior girls—good luck, you'll need it.

I, LEE DOBLE, being of excellent mind, but doubtful body, do bequeath my very warm bench spot in the gym to Ed Boysen and my Santa Claus costume to LARRY "Moose" JOHNSON.

I, JOANNE DODGE, being of sound mind and long body, do hereby will and bequeath to CAROL SILVA, one snowball down the back of the neck, and to ROD SMITH, my vast experiences in a subject relevant to our relationship knowing that he will make good use of them.

I, LEE DOERMANN, being of sound mind and body, do will and bequeath Mrs. Meacham's Civics class to all juniors.

I, BRIAN DODD, being of sound mind and body also do hereby bequeath to PAUL MOERMAN my copy of Rube Goldberg's prize-winning book of "How to Pass Civics With Four Hours of Homework."

I, DANNY DULITZ, being of sound mind and body do hereby will and bequeath to nine foolish juniors one cherry bomb, one school board, and one week's vacation.

I, CAROL EICKHOLT, being of sound mind, bequeath to any student who wants them, Mr. Agnew's broken down typewriters.

I, PENELE ELL, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to FRANNIE IAFRATI, my ability to pass Civics and Bookkeeping with one-legged A's.

I, LESLIE ANN ENOS, being of unhealthy mind and excellent physical condition (?), do hereby will and bequeath my ability to keep my hair neat, my black eyes, and my shy demure, modest nature to KATHY TOONE who will need these to get through high school.

I, SHIRLEY ESTES, will my mother's father's wife's cousin's next-door neighbor's husband's grandfather's brother-in-law's sister's tennis shoes to LINDA LOGELAND.

I, TOM EVERED, being of above average mind and same body, do hereby bequeath the body of John Brown to REBECCA STEUCK.

I, LANA FELICIANO, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my ability to say the wrong thing at the wrong time to MONA ENOS.

I, R. C. FOSTER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to JERRY HOLMES two inches of hair and a jar of "K" "K".

I, STEVE FOWLER, being of sound mind and unsound body hereby will and bequeath a box of Scott Tissues for the girls to use when I leave 'em.

I, KAREN FREEMAN, being of sound mind, will and bequeath to CAROL ANN MOYES my ability to meet cute boys because she needs it so desperately.

LAST WILLS . . .

I, LARRY GAEBE, being of normal student mind and body, do will to JACK BUSHONG, father of SUSAN BUSHONG, one very powerful cherry bomb.

I, PAMELA GERRIE, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath one Mobile Gas Station, a black Pontiac convertible, and all the fun that I had in my senior year to FRAN IAFRATI.

I, ELEANOR GIN, being of sound mind and body, bequeath to FRAN PARKER my ability to sweet-talk Mrs. Wilson, and the ability to fairly dance.

I, LINDA GLENN, being of supersonic sound mind and dilapidated body, will and bequeath to DICK BLAKE one red nose and a pair of castin-ettes to match his shoes and to KAREN RAYNES, one soft whistle.

I, FRITZ GLICK, being of sound mind and brawny build, do hereby will and bequeath to ELAINE HYER a knife so that she can cut people up instead of down.

I, CAROL GOETSCH, being of sound mind bequeath to BEVERLY SMEE, the poor unfortunate luck of being in Vesper Choir again next year—good luck BEV.

I, YOLANDA GOLDEN, being of sound mind, bequeath my ability to forget the flag salute to the up-coming senior class vice president.

I, MARY ANN GREENHAW, being of enlightened mind and sound body, do bequeath to all the up-coming seniors all the hardships and fun of seniors; and to DIANE FRAZIER, I give my infallible ability to drop everything in high.

I, JUDY GREGG, being of sound body and no mind, do will to all the new juniors and seniors, the new group of sophomores, especially my brother ROBERT GREENING, to try to show them how to act and get along with all their new teachers.

I, LYNNE GREGOIRE (DeVAUL), being of sound mind, do hereby will and bequeath to my sister all of my English compositions for Mrs. Botley in hopes that she will use them wisely.

I, MARSHA GROSSHAUSER, being of mangled mind and bold body, do will and bequeath my "naturally (?) blonde" hair to CARLA CITLAU who needs it like another boyfriend.

I, KITTY GROVES, being of sound mind and body do hereby will and bequeath to LINDA PITTS my natural blond tresses to save her time, money and effort!

I, SHARON GUZZIE, being of sound mind and stiff back will to any junior or sophomore a bottom locker.

I, BILL HART being of hysterical laugh and soggy brain, do will and bequeath to BRUCE BORJACK my driving disability and insurance, to my beyootiful gleaming white teeth and my spot in the Crest toothpaste survey, and finally my deep, mellow voice to Mary of Peter, Paul and Mary.

I, JERRY HANSON, will my surfing ability to JOHN ADAMS who will need much more than that.

I, KEN HERGENROEDER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and give (I can't spell bequeath) to all future drama participants in Studio 38, an audience.

I, ROBERT HERNANDEZ, being of sound mind, bequeath a new Studebaker to Mr. Tyner if they come out again.

I, BILL HINOTE, being of sound mind and body, do will the San Luis Obispo Senior High School and all its contents to my "little" brother, Steve, to entertain him for three years. Good luck!

I, TONY HOFFMAN, being of sound body and quick of mind, do humbly leave the ability to miss P.A.T.'s both right and left footed to another person with two-toed talent.

I, KATHI HOLCOMB, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my sister, SHARI HOLCOMB, to all the teachers of San Luis

High—MAY THEY REST IN PEACE!

I, JIM HORN, being of superbly keen mind and overpoweringly magnificent body, do hereby will and bequeath my exceptional speed and $15 track shoes to "The Swamp Fox"; may he use them in good health.

I, DAVE HORNER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my outstanding ability to elude justice to EMMETT DORROUGH.

I, JIM HOUSER, being of unsound mind but in great physical condition, do hereby will and bequeath every pleat and button from the $2,000 upholstery job that's in my $20 car, to my coach, Coach Prijatel, so that he can put it in his $2 El Camino.

I, MARTIN HOWELL, being of omnipotent mind, leave the birdbath to BOB GRINDLE who knows how to use it and a leash to MIKE SMITH. My lock on the bottom row I leave to the tallest student in the junior class in hopes that he will have too many books for it.

I, DORIS HUDGENS, being of sound mind and body, will ANDY BOYLE one white Ford in hopes of getting a new Corvette.

I, CHERYLL HUGHES, being of unsound mind and . . . well, anyway, have been told in no uncertain terms that nobody in his right mind could possibly want anything I have, so, I'm taking it all with me!

I, LINDA HULL, being of very sound mind, and what have you, do hereby will and bequeath my position as Mr. Mores's KEVIN LOUGHRAN'S and MARTIN HOWELL'S fairy god-mother to MURRY DICKSON because I firmly believe he has all the necessary qualifications.

I, DENNIS HUNT, being of exceptionally keen mind (?) and rare physical ability, do hereby will and bequeath; my knack for blowing up Chevy's '65's to anyone stupid enough to own one, and to EMMETT DORROUGH my rare ability to keep his feet firmly planted on the starting blocks so he won't waste his energy by jumping the starter's gun, and to Mr. Austin my fleet feet and 20/60-100/200 eyes to spot any goings on in the new parking lot from a distance.

I, LAURA HUNTER, being of tired mind and body, will and bequeath to TINKER AKERS my attendance and punctuality record so that it will help her graduate (she will need it!)

I, SUZANNE HYLAND, being of sound mind and body, hereby bequeath all my travel-worn transfer papers, (these good-old papers have enabled me to enter this particular school) to anyone who would like to transfer from this high school.

I, KEN INGLE, being of sound mind and body, bequeath to my art teacher, Miss Maxwell, the hope for better students in the future.

I, JOAN JACOBS, being of sound mind do will and bequeath my speech, THE BIG PARADE, to some student next year that he might do the speech justice.

I, LINDA JANIS, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my banged-up shins and hockey stick to Mrs. Lee.

I, PATRICIA JANIS, being of sound mind hereby bequeath to FRAN IAFRATI, Philo and all the other Poly Aggies.

I, DYANNE JENKINS, being of sane mind and sound body, do will and bequeath my expert (?) ability to ski and ice skate to CAROL SILVA; she might need it next February.

I, BARBARA JESSUP, being of sound mind do will and bequeath to the upcoming seniors, juniors, and sophomores, Mrs. Wilson's fifth period PE class and hope they will have as much fun as I did.

I, FAY JOHE, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath this beautiful new high school to all of the lucky new freshmen.

I, SANDY JOHNSON, being of sound mind and unco-ordinated body, will my ability in PE and hockey to BEVERLEY MAY SMEE.

I, VERNON JOLLEY, being of sound mind and perfectly capable of making this will, do hereby bequeath all of my tigers and zebras and lions

THE MOST

Hair
Phil Carrol—Mary Collins

Eyes
Jerry Curley—Norine Mugler

Likely to Succeed
Warren Sinsheimer—Elaine Watson

Intelligent
Martin Howell—Kathy Murray

Dependable
Paul Pedroni—Susan Rich

Personality
Tony Hoffman—Marina O'Donnell

Leadership
Harrison Boyd—Susan Streeter

Attractive
Bob Warren—Diane Lejonhud

Musical Ability
Bob Silva—Dian Wright

Class Character
Dan Dulitz—Leslie Enos

Athletic
Boyd Jones and Doug Diefenderfer—Alvin Bell

Tardiest
Jack Sarber—Jerry Davis

Creative
Steve Stone—Lori Jost

Flirt
Steve Lynch—Eleanor Brodie

Shyest
Mike Wolters—Francie Robertson

Popular
Les Leister—Sandy Lewis

Best All Around
Dick Anderson—Karen Stockird

Surfer
Jim Laing—Cheri Cranford

Dancer
Jim Wilkinson—Sandy Davis

School Spirit
Dave Bowman—Mary Paivine

Talented
David Willson—Barrie Bloom

Dressed
John Barbata—Doris Hudgens

Smile
Bob Bellin—Janie Adams

Friendliest
Mike King—Jeanne Parsons

Tallest
Lee Doble—Joanne Dodge

Shortest
Jim Horn—Benida Santos

Student Participants In Commencement Program

Class Speaker ..... Barrie Bloom
 Pledge of Allegiance ..... Fritz Glick
 Invocation ..... Ruth Boydston
 Class Pledge ..... Harry Boyd
 Benediction ..... Vernon Jolley

Cal Poly Stadium, Friday, June 12, 1964

6:00 P.M.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Fall	President	Spring
Fritz Glick		Harrison Boyd
	Vice President
Steve Stone		Elaine Watson
	Secretary
Karen Stockird		Susan Rich
	Treasurer
Beverly Bonifas		Bill Hart
	Welfare
Dan Chase		Judy Parks
Les Leister		Fritz Glick

LAST WILLS...

and teddy bears and giraffes and all the other little darlings that are above my bed-post to all the sophomores, so that they might be inspired to the great heights of the great people of this great school.

I, BOYD JONES, being of sound mind and body, will and bequeath my ability to get hurt in every sport I go out for to ALAN BOND.

I, JENELL JONES, being of sound mind and body, will and bequeath to GARY (beak) BABCOCK and his gang—especially GARY—all the food they can eat for a whole year.

I, DEE JOST, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to WENDY MONTGOMERY my neat personality so she can get along with DALE.

I, LORI JOST, being of huge mind potential, small mind output, and teeny tiny body, do hereby will and bequeath all my popcicles to LINDA LOGELAND so she can eat them during PE.

I, LAURICE JUDD, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my petti pants to any girl who has to walk up and down the steps, just in case the boards get ripped out again.

I, MIKE KING, being of sound mind, will and bequeath to DALE DUNFORD my hot Chevy six so his Ford will go and also be worth something.

I, CRAIG KRAVAGNA, being of saturated mind and in possession, bequeath to the class of '65 one slightly used sand pile.

I, GERIE LADD, being of sound mind and complete confusion, leave my "senior memories" to any sophomore or junior who wants them and my great hockey playing ability to any junior girl going into Mrs. Lee's class.

I, JIM LAING, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my "chimp arms," and my garachi sandals to BOBBY BLELL, mainly because his brother gaves them to me.

I, DEANN LANGLOIS, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my last can of olives to TOMMY BEATH who needs them desperately.

I, RON LAWSON, being of as sound mind and body as can be expected, do will and bequeath all PE coaches and English teachers to my brother, STEVE.

I, LES LEISTER, being of sane mind and sound body, do hereby will and bequeath one hundred worn out tennis balls, all the tennis shoe rubber I lost on the courts, and the portion of my vocabulary I obtained from playing tennis to JOHN ATKINS, in hopes that he will succeed in tennis next year.

I, DIANE LEJONHUD, being of sound mind and able body, do hereby will and bequeath to CINDY LeMOINE, my ability to sing wrong notes, but with the heaven-sent talent of singing them so softly that nobody else can hear them.

I, JERRY LeMOINE, will to CATHY the console between the bucket seats that makes her so sore.

I, BOB LEWELLING, being of soggy mind and weak heart, do will and bequeath to my future relatives all the hostile teachers I have had. I refer this mainly to CAROL SILVA.

I, NANCY LEWIS, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to KATHY BRAND my ability to swing gracefully on the rings.

I, SANDY LEWIS, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my desk by the window in Civics class to SUE CASSERRA.

I, CATHERINE LIBBY, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my confused and confused team-taught English class to all unfortunate juniors.

I, PAT LOHRBERG, being of tired mind and body, will . . . leave this school.

I, DIANA LORD, being of sound mind, do bequeath my carhopping job to Mrs. Meacham. I also will all my empty lipstick tubes to DOUG YORK.

I, PAT LOWE, being of small mind and unsound body, will my worn out gym locker and its inhabitants along with a pair of smelly gym socks to KAREN TRAVER.

I, ART LUCAS, being of sound mind, will and bequeath a used set of used Ford spark plugs for any Chevy owner who may put them into his car so he can at least come in last at the Saturday night drags.

I, LINDA LUDWICK, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to play hockey to BONNIE DRYDEN.

I, CLAUDIA LUNDQUIST, being of stable mind and stable body, do hereby will and bequeath my Kookie parking space on "177 San Luis Strip" to VONNIE ROSENTHAL as a resting place for her little black bug.

I, STEVE LYNCH, being of warped mind and ample body do hereby will and bequeath an electric fence to the incoming sophomores in hope they will be able to keep their SL from becoming RF and to the school, a one gallon jug of school spirit because it is sorely needed.

I, DENNIS MACHADO, being of feeble mind and wasted body, do hereby will and bequeath the success we had on our raffle to ROD SMITH, CHRIS LUNN, and ALAN BOND.

I, EILEEN MACHADO, being of cold mind and weak body, will and present my invitation to Mr. and Mrs. David St. Dennis' wedding to KENNY HAHN so he can attend the wedding and later the reception.

I, PATTY MACKEY, being of sound mind and body, bequeath to PENNY RANDOLPH, EDSIE and CORA.

I, JIM MANATT, being of unsound mind and body, will and bequeath all my blown up Chevrolet transmissions, clutches, rear ends and engines to CLIFF PFEIFER in hopes he might get a Chevrolet in the coming school years.

I, BARBARA MARCUM, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath one rotten orange to KENNY HAHN.

I, CAROL MAXWELL, being of sound mind and body do hereby will and bequeath to ART LANGLOIS my shocking pink beach bonnet to match his new fluorescent surfer trunks.

I, NANCY McBRIDE, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to LINDA VANDSANDT all the apples that I ate for lunch to keep her trim and slim.

I, SANDY McCUTCHEON, being of sound mind, do will and bequeath all of my empty cans of hair spray to JOE WESTBROOK.

I, JIM McENTIRE, being of sound mind and exceptionally sound body, do will and bequeath my rare picture of Romeo and Juliet which have hung so nobly this past year in my two-bit locker to JIM BUTLER.

I, KATHY McNEMAR, being of frail body and feeble mind, do hereby bequeath to my sister SHEILA McNEMAR all the bruises I received while playing hockey.

I, ANGIE McNETT, afflicted with Beatlemania and a toothpick-shaped body, do hereby will and bequeath to BARBARA CHRISTIANSEN and LINDA HAGERMAN my most unwanted ability to stay skinny as a rail without trying.

I, PAULA MEESE, being of sound mind and bandaged cap hereby bequeath my gauzy bandages to Mr. Avila so that in the future he can give them to any deserving girl in his Civics class.

I, BUD METTERS, being of outstanding mind and athletic body, do will and bequeath my half used tube of Clearasil to next year's basketball star, JERRY PERRY.

I, SANDY MILLSAPS, being of very sound mind and body, hereby will and bequeath to Mr. Avila, my ability to stay awake during class.

I, MIKEL MONTROSE, being of a sickly state and mind, will and do bequeath nothing to nobody for reasons that I'm greedy as all get out.

I, BETTY MORTON, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath future attendance office girls to Mr. Thorup and Mr. Tyner, and hope they have a sense of humor.

LAST WILLS . . .

I, NORINE MUGLER, being of clean mind and thin body, do hereby will and bequeath to BARBARA BLASSINGAME, my ability to keep a Cook, who obviously needs it.

I, GORDON MULLIN, being of sound mind and body, do will to the next year's high school, all the sorrow, sadness, heartache, and loneliness that will come to this school after the class of '64 graduates.

I, KATHRYN MURRAY, being of somewhat befuddled and wearied mind as well as weak and uncoordinated body, do hereby will and bequeath to the interest of science one well-worn and overly large, blue laboratory coat. Having passed many hours together, my wish is that, as I move on to greater heights, it may hang in restful peace. To Mr. George Frost, I leave in sarcasm, a sharp retort. To my dear friend and teacher, Mr. Charles Blodgett, I bequeath an ocean of appreciation.

I, BOB MUSGRAVE, being of brilliant mind and beautiful body, do will and bequeath to MARTI GROVES, my modest personality.

I, ORA SUE MYNATT, being of very feeble mind do hereby will and bequeath my beautiful (unbroken) glasses to JUDY WHITTAKER so she can see through her junior year.

I, MIKE RUDD, do hereby remind the class of '65 not to ever feel sorry for themselves because remember, we had to put up with JOE SULLIVAN and you don't.

I, RAYMOND LLOYD SALYER, being of rather questionable body and not too much mind do will to LEW McDANIELS the ability to lose quarterback position to a willing junior and to JAY JOHNSON the same ability to lose guard position to a ready sophomore and I will to anybody, inability to pray hard enough to keep the above from happening in baseball.

I, SANDRA SANDERS, being of sound (?) mind, and body, do hereby will and bequeath my old love poems to MARILYN WILCOX, my broken test tubes to DONNA GILMAN, and my best wishes to the future students who get team-teaching English.

I, BENIDA SANTOS, being of a sane mind and sound body do will and bequeath my upmost ability to PAM GILLEN to comb my hair within half an hour.

I, PAT SAULSBURY, being of sound body hereby leave DALE DUNFORD my PE socks.

I, KRIS SCHMIDT, being of confused mind and burnt fingers, do hereby will and bequeath to LINDA SMITH, who has even less than I, my terribly inferior ability to cook.

I, DANA SCHWARTZ, being of pretty learned mind (after three years of trying) and tired body (after three years), do hereby will and bequeath the fun and activities at San Luis Obispo High (without trying) to the upcoming seniors.

I, CARL SEIFERTH, being of short mind and body do hereby will and bequeath a bottle of chalk remover and one bird house to Mrs. Slayden.

I, LYNN SHARPE, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath my beautiful turquoise bottom locker to PENNY RANDOLPH so that she can have loads of fun running her nylons every day.

I, VICKIE SHELTON, being of sound mind and surfing body, do hereby will and bequeath my title as "Queen of the Surfers" to ELAINE HYER and BARBARA BONIFAS as they've been trying for it for three years.

I, REGINA SILER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath one broken hockey stick and two flat basketballs to any sophomore who plugs the swimming pool up with chewing gum. To RICHARD BRYANT, I leave any three sophomore girls he chooses and two uncleaned paint brushes—have fun. To DOUG YORK, I will one slightly used piece of mountain.

I, ROBERT SILVA, being of sound body and mind, bequeath the art of sneaking in third period Vesper Choir, to CINDY LeMOINE, since she has always been caught in the past.

I, WARREN SINSHEIMER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to any person who wants them, all of the "American Observers" and the accompanying tests.

I, DAVID SKINNER, being of very sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to any person who wants them, all of the "American Observers."

I, HELEN SMEE, being of sane mind and sound body, hereby bequeath all of my boy friends many to CAROL ANN MOYES, as if she needed them.

I JANIE SMITH, being of sound mind and body, will and bequeath my Civics notebook to LINDA SPELLMAN and MARLENE LUDWICK.

I, PAT SMITH, being of sound mind and body, will and bequeath my good diet plan and no more candy to TOM KIEFER.

I, JUDY STANDLEY, being of sound mind and body, hereby will and bequeath my "dahling" Boston accent to anybody who feels he needs an attention getter, and to anybody who has a strong anchor, my Volkswagen, in the hope that he may have better luck in keeping it on the ground than I did.

I, TOM ST. JOHN, being of very very sound mind and body, will and bequeath my innocent smile, that helps me get out of so much trouble, to anybody who wants it.

I, MICHAEL ANN STOCK, being of sound mind and body, will and bequeath to "no name" my ability to be unable to think of anything to will and to JANICE ROBERTSON my ability to raise my left eyebrow.

I, KAREN STOCKIRD, being of sound mind and slight body, do hereby will and bequeath to SANDRA MERRITT my uncouth nickname, for she was forced to abandon hers when returning to Tennessee.

I, STEPHEN STONE, do hereby bequeath my nearly new (due to the fact that it was never opened, but slightly perforated (with dart holes) Greek Mythology, to Mrs. Botley, C.O.D.

I, SUSAN STREETER, being of questionably sound mind and evidently faltering mind, do hereby will and bequeath to MARY BAUSCH my unmatched record for losing elections.

I, JOE SULLIVAN, do hereby will and bequeath the fastest, strongest, hairiest leap in the school to PATRICK KENNEDY so that he will be a BIG-GER man on campus.

I, MARY TARAZON, being of sound mind and body, bequeath my jet black tight stretch pants to BILL STOWE in hopes that they'll fit quite well on his muscular form.

I, LYNDIA TERRY being of sound mind and sane body, hereby bequeath KAREN McLAIN all the sponges, clay fights, and kiln wash in Miss Doud's class.

I, JOHN TIFFIN being of sound mind (?) and body (?), do will and bequeath to anyone who will give me five bubble gum wrappers for it so I can make a profit; my car, which has broken down faithfully at least once every 19 days in the last nine months.

I, JIM TUTTLE being of sane mind and sound body, do hereby will and bequeath to my brother nothing which is of any value.

I, CATHY TWAY, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to my darling brother, TOM, all of the good times I have had in my high school years.

I, SANDRA VAUGHN, being of sound mind, will and bequeath my half of the sewing machine to KAY WHITNEY.

I, BARBARA WADSTRUP, being of sound mind and body, do will and bequeath to BARBARA GREENE a permanent seat on all the rooters' buses for next year, if they have any.

I, DICK WAGNER, being of frail body and dilapidated mind, do hereby bequeath to all sophomores and juniors who plan to take geometry my superior intelligence in tests.

LAST WILLS . . .

I, CAROL WALTON, being of sound mind and body, I think, do will and bequeath all my fun in Civics, especially second semester, to MARTI JONES, if she ever makes it to her senior year.

I, BOB WARREN, being of unconceited personality, regretfully leave the will-be vacant halls of San Luis Hi to heartbroken WENDY MONTGOMERY.

I, DAVID WASSON, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my "Ten Hot Spots" to any junior for use in Mrs. Meacham's Civics class.

I, ELAINE CAROL WATSON, being of study-proof mind and college-bent body, bestow one thimbleful of midnight oil and a synthetic snake-skin-bound volume of The Art of Committing a Faux Pas, to each underclassman to complete his senior year as graciously as I shall.

I, LEEAN WELCH, being of no mind and weak body, do hereby bequeath my quiet ways and ability to stay in school to my little brother, RUSTY FELICIANO.

I, GARY WESCOM, being of sound body, will my great talent for arguing with instructors to all those who follow me.

I, BRAIN WETTLAUER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my extremely fine co-ordination to poor BUTCH MENSINGER. He needs it!

I, MARK WHIPPLE, being of sound mind and rather generous character do hereby will and bequeath to the Salvation Army my old PE shorts with grass stains, holes, and weird odors, in hopes that some worthy or grateful person will receive them and wear them with more pride than I did during my four years of high school.

I, MARY WHITSON, being of sound mind and weak body, do will and bequeath to CLAUDIA YOUNG a rug on which she can kneel to the South, hoping it will bring her luck, either good or bad, during her college years. I further will and bequeath all my Civics crib notes to DAVID McCRACKEN in hopes that they will benefit him in the coming year.

I, DAN WHITTAKER, do will my good looks to VIC FROBERG and hope that he gets farther with them than I did.

I, BUD WIGHTON, being of sound mind and body, do will and bequeath all my football skills and awards to HOWIE CARROL in the hope that he may be good for something someday.

I, FREDRIK WOODBRIDGE, being of sound mind do hereby will and bequeath to the juniors on the track team, my unequalled ability to fall over hurdles and to all future TOTS observers, the ability to break up girl fights.

I, JIM WILKINSON, being of sound mind anyway do will and bequeath all my typed vocabulary lists to the junior class — estimated value; $15.00.

I, CATHI WILLIAMS, being of sound mind and body do hereby will and bequeath all my A's in civics, all my clay messes in ceramics, all my school days at the beach and the cuts that go along with them to my brother WESLEY alias WEASEL.

I, BARBARA WILLEFORD, being of sound mind, will to my sister, ALICE my favorite class with Miss Mace and her (sportsmanlike) temper. We all like and enjoy her anyway.

I, DAVE WILLSON, do will and bequeath all the memories of Mr. Kiefer's sense of humor to the people whom he will be teaching next year.

I, MARILYN WILSON, being of sound mind and body hereby will and bequeath to MARTY GROVES, my 14 A's and B's to get her into college.

I, JACK WILSON, do hereby will and bequeath my luck and ability to pass Physics to STEVE COOK because I know he is going to need it.

I, BOB WISBERG, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my worthless notes on Atomic Steam Turbines to TOM WIRSHUP.

I, CLAUDIA YOUNG, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath the English translations of the French reading books to all future French students.

I, JERRY WRIGHT, being of somewhat sound mind do will and bequeath my "luck" in golf to DON NELSON, although he doesn't need much.

I, DIAN WRIGHT, being of sound mind and convincing smile, will to next year's Wagers Photography Receptionist, the ability to lie gracefully to a person's face when they ask how their pictures came out.

I, MIKE WOLTERS, being of sound body and mind, will my outstanding ability to cheat in poker to STEVE SEARS; to JERRY DUNLAP, all of my A's in chemistry; and my old Converse to "Swamp Fox" so he can sneak up on cars in the new parking lot.

I, REEVE WOOLPERT, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath any of several used sheets of plywood to any underclass girl who is of shy mind and body.

I, DOUGLAS YORK, being of sound mind, do bequeath all my dirty socks to HEIDI YOUNG.

I, HEIDI YOUNG, being of unsound mind and physically wrecked body, do hereby will and bequeath nothing to no one; therefore I will something to somebody, but What to Who, I have not yet derived from my feeble brain (?).

THE AMERICAN SCREAM MAGAZINE . . .

JERRY HANSON, a typical American lad, has just left for Arabia. On arrival he will be greeted by King STEVE FOWLER and his harem: ELEANOR GINN, SHIRLEY BUSS, LINDA BARRY, LINDA GLEN, NANCY McBRIDE, and LYNN SHARPE. In Arabian tradition Hanson will be transported by flying carpet to the banquet in his honor with entertainment provided by BOYD JONES and RICHARD PESCATORE doing their version of the Butterfly Dance.

NORBERT BAUKUS, tourist guide to the Berlin Wall, showed Ambassadors PARI ANVAR and SUSAN STREETER the night life on the Rhine.

Word has been received by DONNA DeVAUL, press agent, from our hot-line wire-tapper, JIM GRACIA, that this great international situation has been too hot for our sticky-fingered president, STEVE LYNCH. He has just called in the federal reserve plumbers: PARKER HALL, WARREN SINSHEIMER, DANNY DULITZ, LARRY GAEBE, TONY HOFFMAN, DAVE RICHARDS, JERRY CURLEY, FRITZ GLICK, and DOUG DIFENDERFER to pipe in some cold water. If the situation gets any worse he will have to call in JANE DIEL, WARREN CAMBIER, VILHELM NIELSEN and JOYCE DUNN, veterinarians, to study the strange dilemma.

In the East there is a great disturbance for Russian Premier GARY WESCOM and Cuban Dictator JIM WILKINSON have started pounding their heads on the wall and disturbing JANIE ADAMS, JANET BJORKLUND and LINDA JANIS, secretaries to the Slobovian Ambassador, MARGARET BUCK.

DATE LINE: POSO TECH . . . PHIL CARROL has just been expelled from Pozo by MARY COLLINS, Dean of Wigs. The reason of expulsion was disclosed by CAROL MAXWELL, a speaker for the College; "his hair was in curlers."

Soviet Ambassador tours Nation's Capitol . . . Ambassador BOB HERNANDEZ was personally escorted by Secretary of Agriculture TOM ST. JOHN through out nation's capitol, where he met Congressmen MIKE COTTA, DANNY DAVIS, EU. GENE AUSTIN, LAURA HUNTER, HELEN SMEE, and MARILYN WILSON, whereupon he announced "What's for breakfast." Secretary of the Treasury,

AMERICAN SCREAM . . .

MIKE MONTROSE and his under secretaries PAT LOWE and MARK DeWITT paid for the meal.

Now we flash to BETTY JEAN ROBERTS, our home correspondent . . .

"Ladies! It's the latest on the food market—CHEFF'S Boy Ardee by CLARK CHEFF himself! Also you'll want to try that delightful fuzzy beverage that's high in calories, low in protein, put out by the DALE CAREY Bubbling Bottle Company—it's fizzily! For a special treat, drink it with VIRGINIA BROCKMAN'S Better Baby Food.

JOANNE DODGE says her new bread is the feminine answer to Jack O'Lane's exercise bread.

The Scream switches to GARY BABCOCK who will show us the latest in manufactures . . .

What's this? Fireproof shoelaces? By REENIE MUGLER, no wonder!

Packages will have a different look now that BILL HART, CAROL GOETSCH, JERRY RISLEY and CRAIG KRAVAGNA are painting soup cans.

MARY WHITSON, famed book reviewer and drama critic, will now review the cultural scream . . .

On Broadway currently is DECKER'S Christmas Carol in which Uncle Screwey (played by MARTIN HOWELL) gives young Ted Cracket (TED REINHARDT) a bad deal. Santa Claus (LEE DOBLE) and his twelve reindeer (BOB RITTER, SHIRLEY ESTES, DIANA BLAKE, BARBARA PITTS, BOB LEWELLING, KATHI HOLCOMB, LANA FELICIANO, NANCY LEWIS, KEN HERGENROEDER, SUZANNE HYLAND, ORA SUE MYNATT and SANDY VAUGHN) appear on the scene. They saved the day; but then it was discovered that Rudolph (BARRY CHRISTIANSEN) has disappeared with SANDY Reindeer. "It's very exciting," state Manager CAMILLE NORTHINGTON.

Carnegie Hall will host a talented violinist this week—JOHN BARBATA, a graduate of the DICK WAGNER Conservatory in Arroyo Grande.

If you prefer ballet, see HARRY BOLLER and HENRY BIDDLES in Swan Lake. Costumes for the performance have been designed by LYNDA TERRY and LORA ESCALANTE. Hairstyles are by PATRICIA MACKEY and PENNEE ELL.

But if your yen is for opera, hear "The MACHADO," by EILEEN and DENNIS. BEVERLY BONIFAS, world renowned soprano, will sing opposite LARRY WEDDLE, baritone. The young female star will be staying at the JOYCE JOHNSON Hotel with her private secretary, SANDY McCUTCHEON.

On the TV scene we see that LLOYD YORK will take over the Lawrence Welk Show this Saturday. Two sparkling new stars, SANDY DAVIS and CHARLES HOFFMAN will make their debut. They will dance to "Smiling Through with Denture-Stik," a new tune by BOBBY BELLIN. CATHI WILLIAMS will direct the band which will feature CHARLENE PORTER, piano; FRED WOODBRIDGE, bugle; JANICE PUTNAM, flute; and RAY SALTER, second bass (base).

For a report on the ten best sellers, the Scream flashes to ELAINE ANDERSON, city librarian . . .

At the top we find "Rumors Hadit" by CHERYLL HUGHES. Next, JOAN JACOBS has "Life with Daddy's Toys." The rest of the list is as follows: "The Night they Left the Men's Jail Unlocked," by KAREN FREEMAN; "King's Queen," by CHERI CRANFORD; "H-two-O" by MIKE WOLTERS; "Little Lambs Eat Ivy," by WALTER SCHEVE and WILLIAM CHAIDES; "I Deposited Money for Tiger Tales," by CARL SEIFERTH; "Keeping Up with the Joneses," by PAT SMITH; "How to Wear Hats," by LES LEISTER; and "The Most" by DEE JOST.

Finally on the cultural scene, the Scream spies a new fins arts college named for Prince Henry. It will soon be dedicated by its founder, BILL BALDRIDGE. The following heads of staff will be initiated: RICHARD BUTZKE, modern dance; KAREN STOCKIRD and MARSHA GROSSHAUSER cheerful bandleading; JUDY PARKS, ceramics and finger painting; ROY CONDRA, auto mechanics; and LINDA LUDWICK, typing (Improved Hunt 'n' Peck method).

The Scream now flashes to . . . Under Hilda's Hula Hoop.

The most fantastic, gala ball of the year was given last week end by LESLIE ENOS, the greatest hostess since ELSA MAXWELL . . . Of course The ball was given at the most elegant spot on the coast, the Petunia Garden Ballroom in Pismo Beach, which is currently under the joint ownership of DAVID ANDERSON and ART LUCAS. The parking attendants were CHARLES PARKER and PAT SAULSBURY. The many yellow-colored limousines with tuck and roll by HOUSER were obviously rented from KNECHT and Sons, the world's largest manufacturers of limousines and taxi cabs.

Honoring the ball with their appearances were celebrities: ELAINE WATSON, Mayor of Santa Margarita, JERI DAVIS, Los Angeles' first feminine D.A.; MARK WHIPPLE, famous for his excellent performance in the new version of "Lawrence of Arabia"; ELEANOR BRODIE, who heads the Singapore Company's cast in its production of "The World of Suzy Wong"; SUSAN RICH world renowned painter and sculptress and DEROY HARDIE, national director of Quill and Scroll.

JACK SARBER, whose motto is better late than never, escorted CHERI PROUD while leading the fashion parade was SUSAN CAUGHLAN, in a gown by GREGOIRE. She was escorted by San Luis Blues star pitcher KEN INGLE. Many of the lady's coiffures were created by DAVID BOWMAN. He and his attractive wife SHARON (BOLES) were also guests at the gala celebration.

The tantalizing cuisine was prepared by International Chefs JOHN BUTLER and RONNIE LAWSON. A surprise fifteen foot birthday cake was presented to Miss Enos to mark the passing of her one-hundredth society ball. At midnight SYLVIA COLWELL and JUDY PETERSON burst out of the cake singing the Texas version of the birthday song, "Happy Birthday to You-all." Two hours of dancing followed dinner to the music of BRIAN DODD'S "Rejects," the greatest band in San Luis Obispo County.

The Grand March was led by Miss Arroyo Grande, DORIS HUDGENS, and her escort Cal Poly High Jump star, LARRY WYNN, followed by presidential press secretary CATHY TWAY and professional tea taster BRIAN WETTLAUFR.

The 500 guests left en masse for a stroll on the scenic Pismo Pier. To their surprise a 1600 foot yacht owned by JIM COX was there to take the guests on a cruise of San Luis Harbor. Captain BILL HINOTE and his wife PAULA (MEESE) welcomed the visitors aboard. First Mate BOB WISBERG gave interested guests a cook's tour of the vessel. The grand salon was decorated in simple elegance in Passe Provincial by MICHEL STOCK and HEIDI YOUNG. They are best known for their magnificent rejuvenation and decoration of the private palace of MARY TARAZON, first lady of Albania.

Enjoying a midnight snack were English Channel swimmers ALVIN BELL and FAY JOHE. In one cabin was starlett VICKI SHELTON. As the party began to grow wilder, the boat left a trail of milk bottles around the harbor and harbor residents, VIRGINIA JONES and FRANNIE AZEVEDO turned in a complaint. As Police Chief BOB MUSGRAVE and his wife BARBARA (WADSTRUP) were guests on the boat the complaint was not answered. Cabin maid LOIS PURIO was seen strolling on deck. BARBARA WILLEFORD, racing across deck neck to neck with MIKE RUDD, skidded into several other guests and fell overboard.

AMERICAN SCREAM . . .

Thanks to the quick thinking of HARRISON Boyd she was saved from drowning.

After a drying-off spell a doctor was called for BETTY MORTON owner of the Obispo Theatre who had contracted a severe cold. Due to the gravity of her condition, LIBBY's Helicopter Service was called to the scene and transported her to the McCORKLE Memorial Hospital. She disappeared with nurse JANIE SMITH. Dr. DONNA NELSON who has invented a cure for the common cold was rushed in from her research lab and succeeded in saving Miss Morton's life.

The American Scream now switches to the field of science and adventure.

Square record for square music invented by CHARLES RHEINHARDT and JIM HORN . . . PAM GERIE came up with a left-handed watch . . . YOLANDA GOLDEN produced seedless watermelons . . . DIANE LEJONHUT devised spray-on clothes . . . GERALDINE LADD fabricated a portable meter for double parking.

MIKE DOERMANN was instantly rushed to the RUTH BOYDSTON Sanitarium when found hanging by his thumbs at half mast on the high school flag pole. KATRINCA AKERS and REGINA SILER were the astonished witnesses who reported the incident to meter maid KITTY GROVES. She immediately called LINDA HULL'S Ambulance Service. JOHN TIFFIN broke speed records and whisked Mr. Doermann to the hospital before he fainted from hunger. Dr. CLAUDIA YOUNG, with the aid of nurse BONITA BOWLUS, revived him long enough to find that the only pain he had was in his empty stomach. His thumbs, no longer blue, are recuperating nicely. Detective SANDRA SANDERS is hot on the trail of the culprit who committed this horrible crime!

Just back from Africa loaded with trophies of their hunting skill—DICK ANDERSON and his feminine safari. Dick bagged a towering quadruped—a giraffe camelopardalis! MARINA O'DONNELL in disguise, beguiled a tiger into her trap. JEANNE PARSONS with iron nerve behind the sights of her trusty elephant gun downed a plump pachyderm in no time. KRIS SCHMIDT and LEEAN WELCH each ensnared a herd of gazelle. PAT JANIS captured a sleek panther. CLAUDIA LUNDQUIST and CAROL WALTON would settle for no less than the king of beasts while JUDY STANDLEY, with Amazon strength speared a lumbering rhino right between the eyes. Taxidermist BUD METTERS now gets the job of stuffing the deceased animals.

"This will put the United States well ahead of the Russians," said Captain RICK RAMEY in reference to tomorrow's firing of the first manned space craft to the moon. He graciously bestows credit on REX BALDWIN, who is carrying the great responsibility of seeing that the ship has enough fuel, and JIM MANATT, who will push the final button.

Passengers on this champagne flight will include JIM BUFFETT, head chef at the Mark Hopkins in San Francisco, who will distribute the food capsules; LORI JOST and STEVE STONE who designed the wall paper for the space vehicle; SHARON DeROSIER, BARBARA JESSUP, GORDON MULLIN, REEVE WOOLPERT and ANGIE McNETT who will test the unique built-in swimming pool manufactured by KATHY COOK and DAN WHITTAKER; vocalists PAT LOHRBERG, JANE ALDERMAN, GENELLE CAMPBELL and DAVE WILLSON will provide entertainment to the music of McEntire's Mississippi Moonshiners including JIM McENTIRE, TOM EVERED, GLIFF ROBERTS, DANNY CHASE, and LARRY POTTER.

Pilot JIM HAZARD assures us that the trip will be "out of this world."

Happy landing to all!

The American Scream switches to the world of sports . . .

SHEILIA REINHARDT, sports critic and announcer for radio state J-O-E (SULLIVAN) reports the girl football All-Stars have just named their outstanding players. KATHI COATES, DONNA DAOUST, SHARRON GUZZIE, LAURICE JUDD, KATHY McNEMAR, SANDRA MILLSAPS, and CATHY OSGOOD. CAROL EICKHOLT and DIANNA LORD refused to play because their eyeshadow clashed with the color of the uniforms. The DAVE HORNER Five marched during halftime. Band members are DANA SCHWARTZ, second fiddle, JIM TUTTLE, ROBERT SILVA and DIAN WRIGHT, guitar and vocal soloists.

The "Stag" is having a grand opening under the new management of BUD "the little ole' wine-maker" WIGHTON, while PAUL PEDRONI and GREGORY PRATT, owners of the P & P Pool announce that DENNIS HUNT, Olympic Swim champion, will perform in a special show Saturday night under the direction of JED BLAKE local dive champ.

Switching from chlorine water to sea water it was reported that JIM LAING and JERRY LEMOINE have opened their third surf shop for the manufacture and demonstration of L & L Surfboards.

GERALD BURGESS, ED STARNES, VERNON JOLLEY and R.C. FOSTER were selected as members of the SLO track team to travel to Pozo Tech for the World Olympics. MIKE KING is first in line for the Olympic Gold Medal.

Now for the national sport events . . . ANNE COOPER became the first woman tennis player to win the Dodd Cup when she defeated JUDY CAMPFIELD in Palm Springs. While in Palm Springs we noticed SANDY LEWIS training her new horse Mr. Ed for the Grand National.

FLASH! A musical note from GARY WESCOM's L.P. shop. The following best sellers are now on sale: "Be Bop BONINI" by PAT; "BRINGLE Bells" by SUE; by the ROBERT WARREN Chorale, "You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby." "The Wright Way to be Wrong," by JERRY WRIGHT; De ANN and the LANG voices; "Sing SOCHA" by SUTHERLAND; "Jingle Bones" by JENELL JONES; "Once Upon a Greening" by JUDY GREGG; "Let's Shout, Shout, Shout!" by BOB ROLLER and DAVID WASSON; and "The Hitch-Hiker" by MARY PAIVINE.

RAY ASHLEY, our farm correspondent, reports that grain crops have been very high this year. Sheep production is picking up according to NORMAN ALBERTI, while STEVE GRAN says that lumber production has come to an authorized stop.

BARRIE BLOOM'S newest blooming flower is doing better after using JOHN WILSON, BENIDA SANTOS and FRANCIE ROBERTSON's new product—Instant Growth.

Another new product invented by BARBARA MARCUM under the guiding assistance of KATHY MURRAY is an insecticide that kills beetles. But DYANNE JENKINS claims the way she grows her prize winning flowers is by using a "Jir's."

RICHARD "the mouth" BRIANS reports that at the County Fair CECILIA GINGG won first prize for her homemade baby food preserves.

MEL LUSARDI and JEFF BOURNE will only repair Ford tractors, so if it's the place to go if you need your tractor repaired.